Announcing the 4th annual, in house, carnival style

FUN DAY TOURNAMENT!

When: Saturday, June 19th, 2010, 10:00 a.m. until 3:00 p.m. (lunch 12-1)

Where: South Miami Taekwondo Main Dojo at 4542-B SW 75th Ave, 33155

Who: Any SMTKD member or guest. Anyone may compete with anyone else. Just find a partner, go to a ring and ROCK-N-ROLL!

Admission: All Day ($59, $49 sibling) and Half Day ($29, $19 sigling) Passes only this year. Spectators are $5 if on the mat. Waiting room observers are free.

Event tickets: $1 each. Event tickets are required for food and outdoor games. You may also purchase them just to increase your odds of winning a raffle.

Lunch: We will be providing for sale an inexpensive lunch of pizza, chips, drinks and watermelon. Cost should be between 2 and 5 tickets. We are doing a cake walk during lunch instead of the regular Bake Sale. Get out your aprons, folks! Last year's hottest item was Nicole Trujillo's fudge brownies-mm-mmm.

The Fun Day Tournament provides kids (young and old) with the opportunity to practice competing in a no-pressure, fun-filled environment. Rather than putting the focus on one division, one fight, all competitors have unlimited events, and will finish each event with either a first or second place ribbon. The competitor with the most ribbon points (explained later) wins the grand prize trophy. Everyone walks away with a fist full of ribbons and some serious stories to tell!

Any competitor may compete all they want with whomever they choose, including non-member guests. Using the ticket system, parents have control over how much they spend at the tournament. Please keep in mind that this tournament is a highly educational event as well as a fund-raiser for the dojo to help us through the lean summer months. We have put a lot of our own time, money, sweat and mental energy into making this an incredible event that your kids will love. Just take a look at our Fun Day posters at the dojo or ask any former competitors. We (and your kids) hope to see LOTS OF ACTION!
